An Enlarged Heart Aug 23 2019 An Enlarged Heart, the exquisitely written prose debut from prize-winning poet Cynthia Zarin, is a poignantly understated exploration of the author's experiences with love, work, and the surprise of time's passage. In these intertwined episodes from her New York world and beyond, she charts the shifting and complicated parameters of contemporary life and family in writing that feels nearly fictional in its richness of scene, dialogue, and mood. The writer herself is the marvelously rueful character at the center of these tales, at first a bewildered young woman, navigating the terrain of new jobs and borrowed apartments and the rapidly fading New York of people like Mr. Ferri, the Upper East Side tailor ("a wren of a man with pins flashing in his teeth"). By the end, whether Zarin is writing about vanished restaurants, her decades-long love affair with her collection of coats, a newlywed journey to Italy, a child's illness, Mary McCarthy's file cabinet, or the inner life of the New Yorker staff she knew as a young woman, this history of the heart shows us how persistent the past is in returning to us with entirely new lessons, and that there are some truths not even a tailor can alter.

Mr. Beluncle Sep 16 2021 "Like most great comedy," writes Darin Strauss in his Introduction, "Mr. Beluncle makes sport of the Stuffed Shirt, the Hypocritical Pious Gentleman, and the Tyrant, as well as the Big Spender—and all these descriptions fit a single character: Mr. Beluncle himself." One of V. S. Pritchett's most enduring characters, Mr. Beluncle is narcissistic, sanctimonious, and self-indulgent, yet despite these flaws he is undeniably compelling. Readers who follow this quirky British furniture salesman on his seemingly ordinary escapades—shopping for ridiculously expensive houses, attending services at his peculiar church, presiding over a tumultuous family meal—are in for a delightful and disquieting ride. Poignant, hilarious, and utterly unforgettable Mr. Beluncle is an ideal introduction to one of the English language's most gifted authors.

Unlikely Sweethearts (An Amish Christmas Story) Apr 11 2021 He's bent on breaking the rules. She's determined to keep them. Sparks fly when opposites attract in this fun holiday romance! When Randy Stoltz comes home for Christmas on college break, he isn't counting on knocking beautiful Holly Remington off her feet on the ice skating rink. Neither is he counting on falling head-over-heels for his brother Wesley's ex-love interest. Holly's different from any woman Randy's ever known, and she challenges him to do hard things, namely, reconciling with his Amish grandparents. Holly can't help thinking about Randy Stoltz, even though he's the type of guy she never would have considered dating in the past. She's undeniably drawn to his charm, and his good looks only complicate matters. She desires to live for God, and although Randy is a Christian, his priorities remain elsewhere. Can she help open his eyes to the beauty and blessings that a real relationship with God can provide? Will Randy and Holly find faith, joy...and love...this holiday season?

Are you overwhelmed by the amount of paperwork that SEN generates in your school? Would you like to spend more time actually improving the quality of teaching and learning for pupils with SEN or disabilities? If so, this is an essential book for you. Containing practical strategies for reducing the number of individual education plans and review meetings, 'Beating Bureaucracy' will help you to use existing systems for target setting, recording and planning - personalised systems that are used for all children as part of everyday teaching practices. The book showcases the work of four schools that have successfully developed ways of planning provision, working with parents, and supporting staff development. Ready-to-use proforma in the book are also available online, and include: a model policy to give to Ofsted to explain why the school does not use IEPs an information sheet for parents curriculum planning formats strategy sheets that can be highlighted and given to class and subject teachers proformas for commonly used interventions that describe the intervention, its target group, its entry and exit criteria, and monitoring and evaluation arrangements. This invaluable resource will help you (in the words of one SENCO) 'get your life back'. Adopting the new and more effective ways of working presented here will reduce the bureaucratic burden on your school - whilst at the same time improving the impact of your SEN provision on children's learning and well-being.
