A Free Spirit's Search for Enlightenment: Getting Past the Matrix Nov 10 2020 This book is for anyone looking for enlightenment which is simple once you know what it is. It's to see yourself as the pure being you are away from everything you've ever been brainwashed by. Sounds simple but many people live an entire lifetime and not realize they are pure beings with their own true natures who do not owe anything to the people or the society around them except to pay bills and follow the laws. Most misery comes from not being who you are in your natural state. Watch any animal. Cage him up, he gets depressed and angry. Let him be free and he's happy. Most of us grow up to be slaves to some artificial value then wonder why we're not happy. The first slavery is to your family. Your father has expectations for you. He wants what is good for you but if he was a truly enlightened father, he would let you live your own life and not push you into the path he wants for you. My second slavery was to my Catholic religion which was not all that bad. It gave me a sense of community and morals but at sixteen, I went to confession then realized that was kind of silly, me a grown man, confessing my sins to another grown man. I still believe in the community the church offers but my relationship to God is direct. No middle man intervenes. I was brought up in a capitalist-pop culture neighborhood in Halifax, Canada. We were into the Beatles and pinball. Everything was about working, business, making money, buying stuff, getting ahead in the capitalist sense. There is more to life than money. There should come a point when you ask yourself what can I do to make me happy beyond these material things I'm surrounded by. I went to a Catholic elementary school where we pledged allegiance to the Queen and listened to the national anthem Oh Canada every day. The 36 volumes about living by your free spirit are as follows: Volume 1. A Free Spirit's Search for Enlightenment Volume 2. How Do You Keep it Goin' All the Time? Volume 3. Erotic Stories for Punjabi Widows Oct 29 2019 Reese Witherspoon's Book Club Pick A lively, sexy, and thought-provoking East-meets-West story about community, friendship, and women's lives at all ages—a spicy and alluring mix of Together Tea and Calendar Girls. Every woman has a secret life . . . Nikki lives in cosmopolitan West London, where she tends bar at the local pub. The daughter of Indian immigrants, she's spent most of her twenty-odd years distancing herself from the traditional Sikh community of her childhood, preferring a more independent (that is, Western) life. When her father's death leaves the family financially strapped, Nikki, a law school dropout, impulsively takes a job teaching a "creative writing" course at the community center in the beating heart of London's close-knit Punjabi community. Because of a miscommunication, the proper Sikh widows who show up are expecting to learn basic English literacy, not the art of short-story writing. When one of the widows finds a book of sexy stories in English and shares it with the class, Nikki realizes that beneath their white dupattas, her students have a wealth of fantasies and memories. Eager to liberate these modest women, she teaches them how to express their untold stories, unleashing creativity of the most unexpected—and exciting—kind. As more women are drawn to the class, Nikki warns her students to keep their work secret from the Brotherhood, a group of highly conservative young men who have appointed themselves the community's "moral police." But when the widows' gossip offers shocking insights into the death of a young wife—a modern woman like Nikki—and some of the class erotica is shared among friends, it sparks a scandal that threatens them all.

Who Do You Love Apr 03 2020 From the "hilarious, heartbreaking, and insightful" (The Miami Herald) bestselling author Jennifer Weiner comes a sweeping, modern day fairy tale about first romance and lasting love. Rachel Blum and Andy Landis are eight years old when they meet late one night in an ER waiting room. Born with a congenital heart defect, Rachel is a veteran of hospitals, and she's intrigued by the boy who shows up all alone with a broken arm. He tells her his name. She tells him a story. After Andy's taken back to the emergency room and Rachel's sent back to her bed, they think they'll never see each other again. Rachel, the beloved, popular, and protected daughter of two doting parents, grows up wanting for nothing in a fancy Florida suburb. Andy grows up poor in Philadelphia with a single mom and a rare talent that will let him become one of the best runners of his generation. Over the course of three decades, through high school and college, marriages and divorces, from the pinnacles of victory and the heartbreak of defeat, Andy and Rachel will find each other again and again, until they are finally given a chance to decide whether love can surmount difference and distance and if they've been running toward each other all along. With honesty, wit, and clear-eyed observations about men and women, love and fate, and the truth about happy endings, Jennifer Weiner delivers two of her most memorable characters, and a love story you'll never forget.
